

Calling Artists! 2022 Maryland Iron Festival

The Maryland Iron Festival (a free event) is an opportunity for visitors to spend the day in the historic village of Catoctin Furnace for blacksmithing and metal casting, feats of strength, crafts, flowers, heirloom plants, herbs, children's activities, traditional music, food and more! Catoctin Furnace is just South of Thurmont, MD just off US RT 15.

Artists: Please join us for the eleventh annual outdoor art festival in the historic village of Catoctin Furnace, Saturday & Sunday May 21-22, 2022 10 am to 5 p.m. The Catoctin Furnace Historical Society is inviting you to participate as an arts vendor for this year's events.

The fees to participate in the festival are:

- For arts and crafts vendors, $100 with $25 refunded on the second day.
- For arts and crafts vendors who will also demonstrate a traditional craft, $50 with $25 refunded on the second day.
- Parking is free
- CFHS will be providing a 40' x 80' tent and vendors may choose to set up in the tent or, if preferred, provide their own.

Please fill out the attached form and return it by email to Theresa Donnelly <tdonnelly@catoctinfurnace.org>. You will be contacted by CFHS by phone or email and receive a registration packet. Please mail the fee to Catoctin Furnace Historical Society, Inc., 12610 Catoctin Furnace Road, Thurmont, MD 21788.

Please send a few photos of your work. We intend to use the photos in our advertising of the event both in print and social media.

All event proceeds will be utilized for the restoration and maintenance of Catoctin Furnace's historic structures, including the furnace stack, casting shed and Ironmaster's Mansion.
