

2014 Recap: Accomplishments, Activities, and Events

Spirits of the Furnace Preview: “In Their Own Voices: Stories of Enslaved African Americans at Catoctin Furnace”	February 17
Home School Open House at Rose Hill Manor	February 28
Bond Bill Hearings	March 8
Smithsonian Field Trip	March 12
C & O Canal Quarters Field Trip	March 20
Thurmont Business Expo	March 21
Museums at the Mall	March 22
Open Hearth Cooking	March 29
Bond Bill Award!	March 30
Bell and History Day Open House	April 5
Homewood Speaker Series, featuring Elizabeth Comer and Chris Gardiner	April 25
Gallery Stroll in Downtown Thurmont	May 2
3 rd Annual Spring in the Village: Clem Gardiner Dedication Ceremony at Log House	May 10
Phase 1 Archaeological Survey at Forgeman’s House Begins	May 19
Frederick County First Call	June 7
Easels in Frederick	June 16-20
Civil War Reenactors in Catoctin Furnace	June 28
MHAA Grant Award!	July 7
Dendrochronology at Log House	July 8
Elizabeth Comer speaks at Scottish Rite Organization	August 7
TRIPP Grant Award!	August 13
Star-Spangled Bus Tour Visit	August 14
Thurmont and Emmitsburg Community Show	September 5-7
History Day at the Great Frederick Fair	September 18
Catoctin Furnace--Portrait of an Ironmaking Village Books Reordered!	September 20
Backyard of Collier’s Log House Restored	October 1
Thurmont Library Volunteer Fair	October 2
Star-Spangled Bus Tour Visit	October 8
Orlando Ridout Day—Maryland Historical Trust Staff Visits	October 9
Fallfest Open House	October 10 and 11
Star-Spangled Bus Tour Visit	October 21
Star-Spangled Bus Tour Visit	October 23
“Spirits of the Furnace” Event	October 25
Thurmont Documentary Premiere	October 26
ESAF Meeting in Solomons Island, Maryland	October 30-November 1
4 th Annual Traditional Village Christmas	December 6
Museums by Candlelight	December 13
Negotiation of Sager House Lease to CFHS (building to be christened “The Museum of the Iron Worker”)	December 31